

FAW Coach Diversity Programme Application Form

Background:

The Football Association of Wales are committed to ensuring football is for EVERYONE and its workforce is representative of Welsh society.

To achieve key objectives outlined in the PAWB Equality Diversity and Inclusion Strategy the FAW has established the FAW Coach Diversity Programme.

The Programme is an initiative designed to support more coaches from underrepresented communities to become qualified Coaches and to progress in their coaching journey providing financial contributions towards FAW Coaching Courses.

Application:

Please note that the current programme is only open to individuals who are:

- From a Black, Asian and Mixed-Heritage background.
- Based in Wales.
- Aged 16 or older.
- Willing to undertake all elements and requirements of the course applied for.

The application does not offer a guaranteed placement on a course. Bursary recipients are still required to apply for courses in the same way as non-bursary candidates. Successful applicants will be awarded a bursary for the full cost of the course.

Please complete the below application form and add this to your 'evidence' section of your www.fawcourses.com account and title it 'Coach Diversity Application Form'

If you require any support in completing the application or require the application in a different format please contact PAWB@faw.cymru
